The Gift Basket is CHOH's "thank you" gift to our faithful conference attendees. You will find a list of contributors on the CHOH web site. Use the scan code or URL on the card you received at registration check-in to access the "gift basket" online. Mahalo for your support! (The Gift Basket is only for registered conference attendees.)

Conference Recordings

CHOH is in step with technology with our conference recordings. You will be able to order the general session and workshop recordings from your computer or smart phone. Here's how ...

- Come to the kiosk in the Exhibit Hall to order your recording. Someone will be there to help you place your order.
- If you have a smart phone you can order a recording at any time. Check your conference syllabus for the list of workshops. You will notice that each workshop has a QR code next to it. When you scan the code, you will go to the site to purchase the recording. You will receive an email with a link to download the recording.
- Visit the CHOH web site at www.christianhomeschoolersofhawaii.org Find the Workshop Grid on the conference page. By clicking on the workshop title, the workshop description—along with a link to order the recording—will appear. Click on the link and once on the web site, you can purchase the recording of any general session or workshop session from the 2015 CHOH Conference. You will receive an email with a link to download the recording on your computer. From there you can listen to it on your computer, burn it on a CD, or even put it on your iPod.
- And remember, purchases made during the conference are $3 per recording – a 40% savings; after March 15, the cost will be $5 per recording.
